

NAMING FACILITIES

The Board of Education is responsible for naming any new facility. Because the public schools are the property of all within the community past, present, and future, the Board of Education will not name school buildings, school grounds, events or activities after individuals or families.

Adoption Date: June 4, 2002

Effective Date: July 1, 2002

Revised: February 21, 2004